RECOGNITION

The Primary Care Trust recognises the Committee formed for its area in accordance with the provisions of section 44 of The Act. The Committee is or also expects to be recognised by the Strategic Health Authority of which the Primary Care Trust forms part.

1. THE COMMITTEE

- 1.1 Membership The Committee shall consist of:-
- 1.1.1 Elected Members Represented Members elected in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution.
The expression "Elected Members" shall where the context so requires include those persons co-opted to fill a vacancy in accordance with clause 1.4
- 1.1.2 Co-opted Members Practitioners representing a particular class of experience not otherwise represented on the Committee
- Practitioners nominated by the medical staffs of hospitals within the Area in such manner as such medical staffs may from time to time decide
- provided always that the number of co-opted Members does not exceed one quarter of the number of the elected members
- 1.2 Term of Office The period during which an Officer of the Committee or a Committee Member holds office and which concludes at the end of a Committee's Year. An Officer of the Committee, other than an Appointed Secretary, shall not hold office for a period of more than 4 years before retiring and offering himself for re-election
After each 4 yearly LMC election the new committee shall elect new officers of the committee.
- 1.3 Vacancies Where the number of persons elected under paragraph 1.1.1 is less than the number of persons mentioned in such paragraph by reason that no or insufficient qualified candidates have been nominated the Committee may within three months after the election co-opt duly qualified persons to fill the vacancies
- A casual vacancy will occur on:
- the resignation, death or disqualification of an Elected Member of the Committee, or
 - on the appointment of an Elected Member to the Office of Secretary
- Within three months of such a vacancy occurring the Committee shall fill the same by the co-option of a practitioner who as far as possible represents the same class of practitioners or interest as the person in post prior to the vacancy arising

If the casual vacancy arises in the case of a practitioner nominated by the medical staffs of hospitals within the area the casual vacancy shall be filled by a nomination made by such persons

Pending the filling of any vacancy the proceedings of any Committee shall not be invalid by reason of such vacancy

A person co-opted to a vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the period for which the person in whose place he is co-opted would have been entitled to hold office

1.4 Retirement

A member of the Committee whether elected or co-opted may retire on giving written notice delivered to the secretary and the retirement shall take effect on the date specified in the notice if a date is given or if not on the date when the notice is received by the Secretary

1.5 Disqualification

A Member of the Committee shall be disqualified if

1.6.1 he ceases to be a registered medical practitioner or a registered general ophthalmic practitioner or is suspended from the Medical Register

1.6.2 his name is removed or suspended from the Performers List of the area.

1.6.3 he has had his name removed, by a decision made by the FHSAA under section 49N of the Act by a decision under provisions in force in Scotland or Northern Ireland corresponding to Section 49N of the Act, a decision by the Tribunal which is treated as a national disqualification by the FHSAA by virtue of regulation 6(4)(b) of the Abolition of Tribunal Regulations, or a decision by the Tribunal which applies to the whole of Wales and which was made after 13 December 2001 and has not subsequently had his name included in such a list

1.6.4 he is suspended as respects the provision of general medical services or general ophthalmic services under the Act by a direction under Section 49I or 49J of the Act or under regulations made under Section 28DA or 43D of the Act or Sections 8ZA of the Act or in relation to Wales by the Tribunal or in relation to Scotland or Northern Ireland suspended under provisions in force corresponding to those in Sections 49I or 49J of the Act

1.6.5 he fails to disclose a pecuniary interest in a matter which is the subject of consideration at a meeting of the Committee or of one of its Sub-Committees and takes part in the consideration or discussion of that matter or votes on any question with respect to that matter

- 1.6.7 he fails to attend a meeting of the Committee for a period of three meetings unless the Officers of the Committee excluding the absent Member are satisfied that the absence was due to a reasonable cause and that the absent Member will be able to resume attending meetings of the Committee within such period as is considered reasonable.
- 1.6.8 he (or his practice) ceases to pay the Administrative Levy and/or the Voluntary Levy from time to time collected and/or imposed pursuant to the provisions of Clauses 8.1 and 8.2.

A co-opted Member of the Committee shall be disqualified if he ceases to hold the office or qualification which entitled him to be a member of the class of co-opted Members

If any Committee Member's registration with the General Medical Council is suspended he shall not be entitled to resume his membership of the Committee for the remainder of the period for which he was originally appointed but he shall be permitted to stand afresh in the next following election if the suspension has ended prior to the date when the Returning Officer sends a written notice of election to each elector

1.6 Functions

Save where the Committee shall otherwise determine the services of the Committee provided from the Voluntary Levy shall not be available to practitioners who do not contribute to the Voluntary Levy in accordance with the provisions of Clause 8.2.

2. ELECTIONS

2.1 Constituencies

The Committee may if it wishes divide the area into a number of Constituencies for administrative and electoral purposes. If it does so it shall use its best endeavours to ensure, across each Constituency, the fair and equitable representation of each class of Represented Member

2.2 Term of Office

Elected Members shall hold office for a term of four years save

2.3 Frequency

The election of the Committee shall take place in the same month in every fourth year and Elected

Members shall commence their term of office on the next following 1 April

2.4 Method

Voting shall be by ballot of those represented Members whose names appear in Registers A, B and C on 1 January in each year that an election takes place and the persons whose names are so included on such Registers are referred to as “the electors”

The Returning Officer shall send written notice of the election to each elector

Each notice shall state:

- the number of vacancies so as to ensure the representation respectively of practitioners on Registers A, B and C
- state the date by which nominations must be submitted to the Returning Officer
- set out the nomination provisions, as set out below, and
- enclose a nomination form

Any eligible candidate may be self nominated

If the number of nominated candidates qualified for election in each category where there are vacancies does not exceed the number of vacancies the Returning Officer shall declare those candidates to be elected.

In other cases a vote shall be taken

The Returning Officer shall prepare voting papers which shall contain a list of the candidates for whom the elector may vote together with a total number of votes which may be cast by each elector The voting paper shall also specify the date of the election by which the voting paper must be returned to him A voting paper shall be invalid if it is not signed and/or if the elector has cast more votes than are allowed

Each elector shall be entitled to cast a number of votes equal to the number of vacancies to be filled but may not cast more than one vote for any one candidate

The Returning Officer may also disallow a voting paper if it does not comply with this Constitution or if it causes uncertainty as to the candidates for whom the elector desires to record his vote, save that the Returning Officer may in his absolute discretion treat a voting paper so marked as valid for the purpose of any vote other than that in connection with which the uncertainty arises

Voting papers received by the Returning Officer after the election date are invalid

The Returning Officer, after examining the voting papers and determining the validity of the votes, shall count the votes properly recorded and shall prepare a return for the candidates according to the number of votes which each has received the person receiving the greatest number being placed highest in the return

If the votes received by any two or more candidates are equal and the addition of one vote to any one such candidate would enable that candidate to be declared elected the Returning Officer shall decide by lot which of the said candidate shall take the highest place

Any question as to the validity of nomination or voting paper or otherwise in connection with an election shall be determined by the Returning Officer in his absolute discretion

At the conclusion of the election the Returning Officer shall immediately give notice in writing of the result to all candidates

2.5 Saving Provisions

No election shall be invalid by reason of any misdescription or non-compliance with the provisions of this scheme or by reason of any miscount or of the non-delivery, loss or miscarriage in the course of post of any document required or authorised by this Constitution to be despatched by post if the Returning Officer is satisfied that the election was conducted substantially in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution
