

Polyclinics: From threat to opportunity

GP led large surgery development or new individual practice premises?
– a review with a series of short talks from a panel of expert advisers.

Adam Thompson: Director – Healthcare Services Colliers CRE

The choice between leasing or owning their next premises and the stages of dealing with the PCT, planning departments, and the District Valuer.

Bob Senior: National Medical Director – Tenon Medical Services

Raising the finance - the options available, and the practical issues that arise in the short and long term.

David Rees: Head of Healthcare – Davis Langdon Crosher & James

When considering a new practice premises tax savings from Capital Allowances reliefs can significantly improve the bottom line viability.

Kevin Stillwell: Partner – Payne Marsh Stillwell

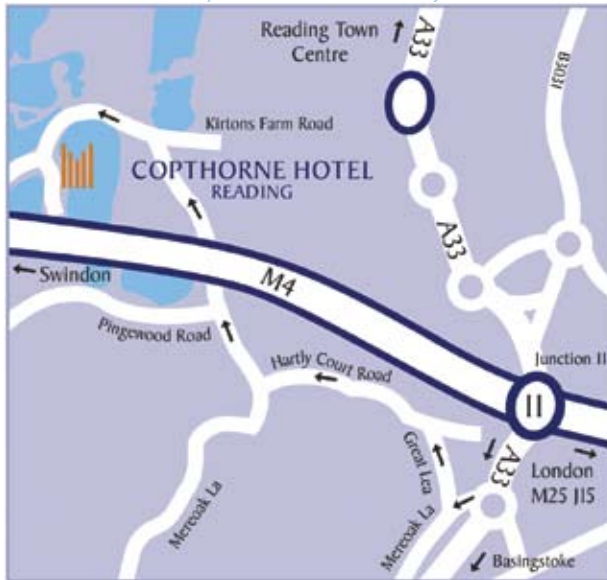

The inter-partner relationship recorded by a well drawn practice agreement uniting individuals but accommodating different aspirations.

When: 21st January, 12.15 for 12.30 start 2pm sharp finish.

Where: Copthorne Hotel Reading

RSVP: Stefania Valenti, stefania.valenti@collierscre.co.uk, 0207 487 1703

For further details or to register on line visit www.collierscre.com

The Copthorne Hotel Reading – Reading is conveniently located, with road, rail and air links all within easy reach.

By Road: M4 Motorway
Junction 11 – 2 ½ Miles

By Rail: Reading Station – 5 Miles

By Air: Heathrow Airport – 35 Miles

DIRECTIONS

From London, The Midlands, The East & The West:

Leave the M4 at Junction 11 and take the A33 towards Basingstoke.

At the Three Mile Cross Roundabout (approx 250m from the M4) turn RIGHT as indicated by the official brown road sign (signposted Burghfield and Mortimer).

Continue for approx 200m and take the 2nd RIGHT again as indicated by the brown road sign. Continue along this road, passing over the M4 and through the traffic lights.

Copthorne Hotel Reading – Reading is on your left beside the lake.

From Central Reading:

Follow the A33 towards Basingstoke. At the Three Mile Cross Roundabout Follow Signs to the Copthorne Hotel Reading – Reading.

See Directions Above.